What is NSA?

The National Speakers Association (NSA) is the leading organization for professional speakers. Its mission is dedicated to advancing the art and value of those who speak professionally. It was established to be a community for professional speakers to develop platform excellence and business knowledge. NSA is for people who want to grow their professional speaking business.

“The biggest value I get from NSA-MN is the open sharing of best ideas, practices, tools, and systems...from all levels of professional speakers for FREE! NSA-MN is not competitive amongst its members; they are generous.”

Gabrielle Hamen-Kieffer

“NSA-MN has flat out helped me grow my speaking business exponentially.”

Michael Roby

“My value is in further professional education, development, networking with peers, learning from the experts, building credibility in the field through professional organizations, and giving back through volunteering and being involved.”

Amy Tolbert, Ph.D., CSP

The value is here! Consider the great benefits of getting involved in NSA-MN.
